TO THE students of today who will be the citizens of tomorrow; to the youth who have threw like a Trojan. As Ever Roberta passed through our halls seeking the meaning of life, we offer this book of memories in tribute to those carefree hours when the tomorrows come before you realize today has gone. Life in its happier moods is pictured here, in the hope that this book may be an inspiration for its greater enjoyment. May its joyous theme bring a greater appreciation of the opportunities for health, education, and recreation which have been provided by those who hold you dear. To our

Seniors, we wish you Godspeed, and may success attend you in the years to come, and may this

Campanile become a book of memories which will bring back again your school days in Wood-

■ ACTIVITY PERIODS—Following the recommendations of Dr. Paul Hanna and Dr. Harold Hand, noted Stanford educators, and Principal Harry J. Moore, a modified period program was inaugurated last September. The revised program, which has been enthusiastically received by the student body, includes three periods each day for class recitation and teacher-pupil contact, one period of supervised study, and one free period for extra-curricular activities. The Wilson administration advances the thesis that the free periods are valuable in developing individual initiative within students and the ability to manage their own time. It is also contended that the free time encourages social contacts, broadens person-

■ PUBLIC ADDRESS SYSTEM—Banding together and unifying Wilson's student body, the public address system, first to be installed in the nation eleven years ago, gives to each room the policies, daily bulletins and the school spirit of this modern institution. Taking the place of the auditorium, lost during the catastrophe of four years ago, this system is used in all city student rallies, patio assemblies, athletic games, publicity stunts, and political rallies.

The Friday morning broadcasts by the Board of Governors were inaugurated this year to raise the standards of student conduct to a plane which does not require student policing. In order to prepare students for living in a Democracy which depends for its success upon the ability of individuals to control themselves, order is maintained by self control rather than external restrictions.

■ VISUAL EDUCATION—With the inauguration of audio-visual education in the Long Beach school system, Wilson has enthusiastically given impetus to the movement by presenting dozens of films to supplement and stimulate class-room learning. Under the direction of Boyer W. Voisard, more than fifty different movies on diversified subjects including physics, chemistry, industrial arts, physical education, personal health, history, geography, and music have been presented before capacity audiences. Administrators and teachers alike are convinced of the ability of films to overcome class room limitations. Through the medium of motion pictures the world is brought into the class room; interest is stimulated; the retarded child is given a fairer chance for learning; and time is saved.

■ PERSONALITY RATINGS—Self-analysis, introspection, questionnaires, and guidance in future vocations, are watch words among counselor John Mangold and his assistants, Mesdames Olmsted, Lahrson, Mr. Bakken, and Miss V. Johnston. Self-analysis is a result of the keen competition in modern life where business success is so dependent upon a vocational choice suited to the individual's personality. Every student informally discusses with the adviser his selected vocation, hobbies, out-looks on life, self-control, and get-along-ability, and together they work out a program enabling the student to make the most of his educational opportunities. Many classes work on this new approach to learning.

Governors build morale through broadcasts

■ GOVERNORS—With school spirit reaching mountain peaks, the governors were called on to launch and direct the endless policies and infinite details that confront the student leaders of their far flung campus. As Varsity and "B" football teams swept forward to unscaled heights, all Wilson united under the governors to back teams, coaches, rallies, games, men, and the record smashing student body ticket drive backed by the commissioners was unequalled in Wilson history. Upon the board of governors falls the responsibilities of appointing the commissioners, approving budgets, granting awards, deciding any constitutional measures that may arise. In addition this year the governors staged, in cooperation with Poly and Jordan, a joint school dance; with the fathers as guests, they sponsored the stag awards' banquet, and they regulated lettermen's sweaters.

■ STUDENT COUNCIL—Truly a preparation for democracy, the Student Council occupies a definite place in the Wilson administration. In part, its duties are to control the point system, to fill any vacancies on the Board of Governors, to make any necessary alterations in the by-laws and to pass on all constitutions. Its biggest undertaking is drawing up the budget for various branches of the self-supporting, self-governing student body. Chosen from each representative department, its members bring together the problems affecting their particular interest.

■ GIRLS' LEAGUE—To promote the highest ideals of womanhood, to further happiness, friendliness, and democracy among girls, and to help with the growth of distinctive Woodrow Wilson spirit are a few of the worth while aims of the Girls' League. Another year, bubbling with enthusiasm and achievement, marks the eleventh anniversary of this group which is active in promoting Thanksgiving and Christmas drives and civic work for Mexican children. The advisory board is a governing body which regulates uniforms, attends conventions and local meetings, and serves the school in many programs and entertainments, as well as taking care of social affairs. When cheerful little remembrances are received by faculty members when they are passing another milestone or when ill; when sponsors and parents are honored, the Girls' League is responsible.

Wilson's first line of defense

■ P.T.A.—The Executive Board of the Wilson Parent-Teacher Association with Mrs. A. O. Christenson as president, is proud of the year's achievements for student welfare. The student welfare fund, ever the first concern of the Wilson parents, has been supported by student body dances, card parties, an auction lunch, and beautiful programs presented by the Wilson Ladies' Chorus under the direction of L. D. Frey. With the theme of the year, "Interpreting the Modern School", as a lode star, programs have been planned to bring to the parents a practical message of the education of the present day. James K. Shallenberger directed the Parents' Forum in interesting sessions dealing with different aspects of physiology and hygiene. The Fathers' Council, with Ernest Steiner as leader, has been active this year in furthering the rebuilding of Wilson's auditorium. Broader understanding between these co-workers for Wilson's betterment came through social hours over dinner tables and teacups. Fathers and daughters dined, fathers and sons banqueted, mothers and teachers met through card parties and teas, and faculty and P.T.A. executives were re-acquainted by the annual luncheon. March 18, in observation of Arbor Day, three trees were set on Wilson's grounds in cooperation with the city-wide plan.

WILSON LIFE

My, it's a grand feeling to be out here on this long shining beach. Why, Wilson is down here by the hundreds . . . Do we love our ocean with its sweep of clean white beaches and the rhythmic roar of breakers! Good old beach! Just give us an umbrella, a blanket and a lazy summer sun, and some hot dogs and we're here all day . . .

BANNER DAYS AT WILSON

A clean driving wind whips ten thousand miles of sea into boiling frothy breakers that dash and ripple on sandy beaches! Whew it's cold! Whew it's cold!

Dear Sunday -
You are a sweet
dear and I love you dearly. May you always remain the same sweet and may you now and friends for the years to come
Best wishes and love

La Fuente joins the All Americans

■ SCRIPTERS—La Fuente, All American toast of Scripters, appeared in an imitation vellum cover of rich ivories with a dashing modernistic design of the fountain in a brilliant red. The magazine was so popularized that all of the 750 copies of Wilson's creative writing artists found enthusiastic response.

■ "ON THE STAIRS"—The weird lament of superstitious darkies, the romantic appeal of the Hindu fakir, and the shrewdness of the lead in solving the mystery, furnished the interest, comedy, and shivers of the all-school play, "On The Stairs", presented in the Poly Auditorium, April 30. Mystery and misfortune struck at the plantation home of Mrs. Bellmore, southern aristocrat of great wealth, played by Virginia Mozingo, in the form of the handsome and refined Hindu, Bob Keating. His play was unhampered until he interfered with the love affair of Elsa, Leola Berger, and Merritt, Vic Cole. The action of the comedy-mystery drama dealt with the discovery of the villain by the heroic lead, and detective, Al Williams. The cast included: Holley Smith, Mary Wells, Don Worthington, Bill West, Warren Probst, Jim Baker, John French, and Wally Rodecker. Mrs. Helen Mathews, directed the moving performance.

ON THE STAIRS

Mood artists built up temperament for play-goers

■ "ON THE STAIRS"—The main outside essential for the success of the play, "On The Stairs", was atmosphere. The magnificence of the Southern mansions, the veiled, mysterious personalities of the Hindu fakir and his partners in crime, the superstitions of the Negroes, the animosity between the two leading male characters, all needed more than just acting to depend on. Miss Burdick's Stage Crew built the setting which realistically blended into the performance and created the proper atmosphere for the actors and the roles. The Costume Crew, under the direction of Miss Chalker, made arrangements for the costumes and, through the magic of make-up, created all types of characters, from the suave Hindu to the beautiful young girl. Music in strange moods was directed by Gerald Strang; Miss Reagan presented dancers in original student dances; D. P. Hennes and the Ad Club gave publicity.

ON THE STAIRS

The Swami needs more color . . . darken the eyeshadow

■ STAGE COSTUME—Costumes, bizarre and beautiful; faces of young people, through make-up, made to represent every type! These are the work of the Costume Crew. The fairy-like “Nutcracker Suite” at Christmas, and the weird designs for “On the Stairs” were the work of this crew. Inspired by the subtle imagination of Miss Chalker, the theory of costume design is brought to reality.

STAGE COSTUME

Kill that red light over there

■ STAGE CREW—True artists, these, full of ambition and originality. Imaginations in full swing, the inspired crew spends endless hours planning with tiny intricate settings, miniature flats and platforms. Experiments test out the most effective lightings, and harmonious color combinations, until at last the perfect atmosphere is created. School plays, Thespian and French Club productions, assemblies, exhibits, and commencement and Vesper services provide opportunities for this creative group. "The Nutcracker Suite," with its elaborate setting, glittering Christmas trees, and clever giant toys, proved an inspiration to the talent and originality of the crew. When the curtains part and the play begins, it's seldom realized that the beauty that is seen is symbolic of thousands of ideas and hours of work.

■ THESPIAN—The title of Wilson's most distinctive and popular organization is without question the Thespian Club. The activities of this group are unlimited, unnumbered, and at times unprecedented. Plays, skits, parties, dances, and assemblies are a few. The highlight of their drama season was the theatre party featuring two one-act plays, "The Valiant", and "Keeping Him Home". Thespians also carried the major roles in the all-school play, "On The Stairs". Their versatility is not limited to the dramatic arts, for this group has brilliant representatives in every activity developed at Wilson. Their humor, their athletic prowess, their drama, their art, their terpsichorean grace, their scholarship, their musical ability—all these have sparkled in a hundred campus shows. And giving them a distinct challenge two Thespian alumnae, Priscilla Moran and Marjorie Simmons, won movie contracts.

SOFTLY NOW, THIS IS THE VESPER HOUR MUSIC

■ GLEE CLUBS—On clear, tranquil days, soft harmonious sounds drift over the campus like tinkling Canterbury bells from far distant lands. Amid the short interludes in class discussions the melodious strains of the glee clubs may be heard as many youthful voices are blended in daily practice—groups striving for beautiful tone quality, fine interpretation, and good diction of the part songs. Ringing melodies of various eras of music—now a flurried modern piece and the next moment an enraptured melody of an earlier period. The mounting interest in and appreciation of good music that is permeating and sweeping Southern California is shared by Wilson's own Gleees. Their inspiration in the Symphonies Under Stars, grand operas, world famous a capella choirs on tour, and college gleees in operatic performances on the campus, have been a lavish musical Fest.

SENIOR GLEE BOYS' GLEE

CAN YOU HEAR THE BAND AT THAT POLY GAME? BOY!

■ BAND—The stirring martial music of the largest band in the history of Wilson brought the tense crowds in the grandstands to their feet at every football game. Flashing horns, shimmering new red and gold satin capes, strutting drum majors, clockwork maneuvers. This is the Wilson band! At every game, assembly, parade. At Homecoming Day, at the tree planting ceremony, and at their first band concert in years was the ever faithful band. There is no group in school more loyal than the band. In the absence of George C. Moore, conductor, who was ill most of the second semester, Gerald Strang, U.C.L.A. professor, has competently directed this organization.

■ ORCHESTRA—Accepting their tent auditorium as a challenge, the Wilson Advanced Orchestra has carried forward a year of music which compares favorably with that of the auditorium era. A varied program for the year included performances at assemblies, P.T.A. meetings, Mothers' Chorus, vespers, graduation, and the school play. The annual Poly-Wilson concert was renewed for the first time since the earthquake. Gerald Strang, professor at U.C.L.A., took over the orchestra during George C. Moore's illness, and presented it in a concert last May which displayed talent in the interpretation of difficult classic and modern numbers.

Watch the flaming capes prance!

Band and Orchestra—Boy! Will you ever forget the enthusiasm which poured out of the band at the Poly-Wilson game? Then, last Armistice Day when they came clicking down Pine Avenue in their gleaming white and silver, topped off by those lustrous new red and gold capes, taking their place with highly-touted bands from Uncle Sam's Navy.

The stately music of the Vesper service played by Wilson's own talented orchestra is an example of the epitome of culture which it brings to the school. George C. Moore, leader, has been sorely missed by students and faculty.

MR. CHAIRMAN, I SPEAK FOR YOUTH AT WILSON

■ JUNIOR SPEAKERS' BUREAU—Soaring high as a representative of youth's outlook on life, the Junior Speakers' Bureau is Wilson's evidence to a critical generation that high school students can reason clearly, think intelligently, and speak effectively. Furthering progress and advancement, the Junior Speakers have concluded an exceptionally successful year. Two hundred highly acclaimed appearances were made at various city business organizations, service clubs, P. T. A. meetings, and discussion groups by approximately fifty members. "We Who Are About to Live" was the theme of this year's Poly-Wilson Public Discussion which now after its fourth successful year is established as the outstanding presentation sponsored by the Bureau. Wilson was represented by Victor Cole, Charles Davis, and Evelyn Smolowitz, and in conjunction with three Poly delegates presented a symposium of problems facing youth in the modern world. Don Hedstrom and Bill West of the Sophomore Class were presented with the Kiwanis loving cup as winners of the Inter-Class Debate. Completing a season marked by many spirited speech contests, the annual Extemporaneous Speaking Contest was presented before the Women's City Club. The winner, Don Hedstrom, was awarded a cash prize of ten dollars.

Enthusiasm mounted to new highs as wave after wave of sophomore spirit knocked at the door of Public Speaking asking for a chance to voice their opinions, loyalty, skill in telling a far flung Long Beach in all its various ramifications that youth is ready to take its place in the world to carry on.

Mr. Pierce, the sophomores want an extemp contest

Junior Speakers' Bureau—Potential Daniel Websters and Franklin D. Roosevelts devour Readers' Digests in an effort to present well formed opinions, not only on youth's problems, but on subjects of national import. The sophomores this year have forged ahead, acquainting Long Beach anew with the powers of youth and the definite niche that is occupied by such thinking members of the younger generation. Covering proficiently every modern subject these statesmen of tomorrow give promise of a mentally alert and growing America. The Bureau acts as a medium to bridge the ever-present gap that exists between the viewpoints of today and yesterday.

Tickets? Oh, you buy them back at the cage, Soph.

■ STUDENT BODY STORE—No spot on the campus compares with the store for freedom, gayety, carefree social abandon, and good things to eat. Malts, candy bars, cool bottled drinks, ice cream concoctions, luscious sundaes and specials all appeal to the inner man of Joe Wilson. Brilliant colors add a modern touch.

Mrs. Frances A. White, sympathetic, efficient, beloved store adviser for seven years, died December 14, 1936. The news came as a direct blow to all students and faculty who knew her as a true friend of high school boys and girls.

WE WON 12 SCHOLARSHIPS LAST YEAR, WHOOPEE!

■ SCHOLARSHIP—With “Scholarship for Service” as its motto, the society inspired school-wide enthusiasm for higher scholarship and the winning of scholarships. In fulfilling the motto during the year, the society has sponsored several matinee dances, made its annual University trip, held the annual Scholarship banquet, sent representatives to district meetings, maintained a large number of smooth running committees, and shared in social events. Notable among the events of the year was the trip to beautiful Santa Catalina Island where delegates from all of Southern California gathered to hold a convention. Within the society the popular dance orchestra, “The Swing Bandits”, has been formed which has played for all Scholarship functions as well as for other entertainments. All of these activities were handled in a remarkably efficient manner under the able sponsorship of Charles E. Lowry, faculty adviser, and a group of able faculty assistants and student executives.

■ SCHOLARSHIP (FIRST GROUP)—Front row: Spratlen, Taylor, Nestle, Purvis, McClanahan, Thompson, Waltz, Zeller, Young, Myers, Robinson, Maness, Olmsted. Scholarship—"If I can't get an "A" out of English and a "B" in science I just won't be able to make Scholarship! Why didn't I study more last semester? Oh me!" Over 300 applications are received and checked by scholarship executives each semester, for there is not one Wilson student who would not be proud to call himself a member of this state organization. The ultimate goal? Yes, we have one . . . The Scholarship Lamp which entitles the owners to life membership in the California Scholarship Federation and a gold seal on their diplomas.

Did you ever see so many clever acts?

■ FRENCH GUILD—The glamour of Parisian ladies, petite peasant maids in provincial costumes hundreds of interested parents watching their ambitious offspring in excerpts from current French plays, Maurice Chevalier's latest song hit, and colorful native folk dances are an integral part of the semi-annual soirees that the Guild presents to show the variety of work done by this group. Nearly a hundred embryo artists staged skits, plays, and musical solos at an entertainment December 6, while another group worked on vocal and instrumental numbers, instructive research articles, duets, and French folk and popular songs for March 18. This is the medium through which Wilson French enthusiasts learn 'leur francais.' These unique activities are inspired by the 'dernier cri' in literature and music which Miss Blackwood brings annually from France.

■ Versatile actors appearing in sparkling Guild soirees are Henry Linscott, Bob Kirkland, Mary Poffenberger, John French, Lee MacFarland, Evelyn Riebe, Betty Broadhurst, Judy Jewell, Victor Cole, Al Beach, Don Connor, Wayne Barber, Shirley Rodecker.

■ PRINT SHOP—Craving the experience in the occupation of adult life, Wilson boys cast aside playthings and learn to use the tools and machinery made for men. Publications such as Campanile, voted one of the best ten annuals in the United States, the Wilson Loudspeaker, La Fuente, and the Lowell Coxswain are set and made up for the presses. This is only part of the high quality jobs turned out of this shop. Key men include Louis Buntrock, Edward Stout, Harmon Wickson, Raymond Souders, Jeffrey, Blackman, Max Carlson and Richard Timmerhoff, under Max Morrison, instructor.

■ CAMPANILE—Receiving fan mail of movie star proportions, Wilson's publication enthusiasts burst with pride over Campanile's Pacemaker rating. Only ten in the United States, and they wanted us to come to the Detroit convention and tell how we did it. Have you bought your Campanile? It's going to be another Pacemaker. Call Buffums and find out if they can be ready for that sport ad by four o'clock this afternoon—our ads have to be snappy to maintain this high rating in America we got last year. CAMPANILE

Was Wilson thrilled over her Pacemaker honors last year?

■ CAMPANILE—The staff of 1937 has accepted the challenge of the Pacemaker rating won by the Campanile in 1936. It means something to be rated one of the ten best annuals in the United States—"ten that are leading the field in annual improvement, according to advice received from the All-American headquarters in Minnesota U. The staff has accepted the challenge of some eighty pieces of fan mail from the four corners of the United States. The ocean at play is used as a theme, and did Wilson's potential movie stars flock down there in droves to model! The ad section which created a sensation in national circles last year reaches the same high standard in this issue. Miss Katheryn Harrison, general adviser; Max Morrison, printing adviser; Bruce Johnston, editor; and Louis Buntrock, printing, head this eleventh volume.

■ WILSON SPORTS—Dazzling! Tackling! Blocking! Surprise Package! Miracle Men! These words define the 1936 edition of the Wilson Varsity football team that wound up in a blazing finish to cop second in the Coast League. Al Johnson, inspiring new mentor, turned all eyes to the East end of the city when he showed them the best team in Wilson's history. Wasn't it the Bruin eleven, that wasn't expected to win more than one game, that raised Wilson's spirit to its greatest height? Coach Gartner's B football giants walloped everything in front of them. In winning their third consecutive Southern California title, the cross-country harriers set a record that no other athletic team in Wilson has ever equalled. Again the Bruin spikesters were an outstanding threat for supremacy in Southland prep circles. Although the Coast League championship ended in a

■ BASKETBALL—Emerging from the Coast League schedule with but one victory for the Varsity and none for the B's, coach Fred Frazer's basketball squads went through a most disappointing season. Although blessed with an apparent wealth of material, the Bruin basketekers were handicapped by several difficulties . . . mainly, the lack of their own gym and having only one coach for the two teams. After breaking even in practice games, the hoopsters dropped the league opener,

■ BASEBALL—Crushing 23 out of 27 opponents, the Wilson baseball team ended the Coast League in a tie for first with the strong San Diego nine. In Coast League competition the Bruins won four and lost one, losing only to the Alhambra squad 7-1. They defeated Hoover of San Diego 17-4; Santa Ana 16-4; San Diego 8-1; and became the first Wilson team to defeat Poly by a 9-8 count. In the Pomona tournament the slugging Bruins met the best opposition in the Southland and gained the semi-finals only to be turned back by San Diego. Led by Bus Bachtelle, who won most of the games for Wilson, the Bruins were a feared team where ever they played. Stan White, chosen on the all-star team to go to Japan, was the leading batter, hitting at 432; Bockmon and Burch followed with 371. These boys have established a record for Wilson's baseball history.

■ HOCKEY AND SPEEDBALL—Intricate maneuvering . . . capable linesmen against stubborn defenders . . . games of action . . . valour . . . dexterity. Many teams were organized, competently captained, and games galore were played, friendly competition reigning. Intramural play kept the season going at full pace. Activity periods, after school, always the field was a panorama of activity.

■ NEW SPORTS' PROGRAM—A cycle of sports . . . rotation . . . a chance at all. Basketball, speedball, folk dancing for the sophomore B's, different sports for the sophomore A's, archery, golf, baseball, for the Junior B's, rhythms, marching, tumbling for the Junior A's. And on through to the Senior A's who have their choice of all the sports. ■ TENNIS—Court after court flashing racquets . . . accurate . . . skillful. With waves of bubbling eagerness, Wilson caught the mania of the sport. There is no hour too early or too late to find the courts, school and Recreation Park, swarming with girls . . . bidding for places . . . challenging . . . watching with keen alertness deft strokes of more experienced players . . . always striving for more ease, more perfect strokes and footwork. Miss Vera Johnston's enthusiasm inspired the girls. All tennis classes were over-flowing, the tennis club membership record-breaking, and after school instruction eagerly devoured. Tournaments . . . mixed doubles . . . girls' doubles, singles—all earnestly participated in, all interestedly spectated. This accent on tennis is part of a nation-wide movement being inaugurated to train girls and women for leisure time sports,

WATCH THE FORDS GO BY!

■ There's four of Wilson's popular students in front of the HAWTHORNE MOTOR COMPANY, 222 E. ANAHEIM. Hi, there, Helen Wise, John French, Lillian Eccles, and Ralph Clark.

"This 85 Horsepower, snappy FORD V-8 certainly has class," says Ralph Clark, Wilson yell king.

"Yes, and doesn't it have the neatest dash panel and upholstery," Helen Wise says.

With the safety of driver, passenger and pedestrian a matter of national concern today, no one can afford to choose a car unless it provides every possible safeguard, and I know the FORD V-8 FOR 1937 covers all this," declares John French, Wilson's great track athlete and governor of affairs. "This car rides easier with the new FORD CENTER-POISE CRADLE than any new car I've ridden in," says 'Laddy Eccles'.

"If you want a real treat take a ride in one of these FORD V-8'S FOR 1937 at the showrooms of the HAWTHORNE MOTOR COMPANY," remarks Helen. "And this convertible coupe with all its luxuries is certainly the best present your family could get this year in an automobile buy," says Ralph.

■ There's Johnny Clarke, talking with Mr. Mottell in front of his beautiful mortuary at THIRD & ALAMITOS. Johnny, who is a former staff member says, "It's strange how Mottell's can render such a wonderful service in so dignified an atmosphere as reasonably as they do."

Mr. Mottell, who is affectionately known to the thousands of people in this City as "Uncle Joe", came to Long Beach almost thirty years ago and established the firm of J. J. Mottell, Inc. Mr. Mottell, as a member of the Associated Charities, is one of the founders of the Long Beach Day Nursery and has spent many years helping the underprivileged children of the City.

CALIFORNIA COLLEGE OF COMMERCE

■ "Hello, Gwendolyn Hoeven!" greets Jerry Newton. "We're glad to see a former Wilson student, and we want to get some information about the courses here at the California College of Commerce, Sixth and Pine."

"Is it true that when students have completed their courses here, they are placed in good positions?" asked Peggy Leake.

"You bet it is," answers Gwendolyn. "A recent survey shows that the average student is placed within three weeks after graduation. Over 100 graduates have been placed in the past six months."

"Robert Tracy wants to know some of the different machines used in a business course."

"Well, Robert, some of the machines here include Burroughs Bookkeeping Machines, Elliott Fishers, Monroes, Comptometers, Moon-Hopkins Biller, Addressograph, Multigraph, Mimeograph, P.B.X., Ediphones, and Typewriters. In fact, the school is completely equipped for all types of business work."

"And," remarks Norma Maitland, "the California College of Commerce is the only Business School in Long Beach chartered by the State to grant Degrees."

"That's right," answers Gwendolyn, "and a business training in such a prominent school is the best possible insurance against adversity."

FARNHAM'S

Swank models, Boy!

Snappy outfit, Fred Roberts

■ Why look who's in FARNHAM'S . . . Fred Roberts and Bob Norris. Say, Bob, that's a good looking suit you have on.

"Yes," says Bob, "it's one of those new Spring Hart, Schaffner, and Marx suits that everybody is talking about. Did you ever see such fine tailoring?"

"Only in nother Hart, Schaffner, and Marx like my sports coat here," exclaims Fred. Yes, boys, we'll have to agree with you; those are the snappiest looking outfits we've ever seen. We'll have to look those up. "Well," says Fred, "remember that the place to go to get your Hart, Schaffner, and Marx clothes and Nunn-Bush Ankle Fashioned Oxfords is FARNHAM'S . . . 124 Pine Avenue."

BARNETT'S BOOTERY

250 Pine Ave.

Hello, Helen Thomas

Hello, Janice

■ "Say, you kids, have you ever seen such swank looking shoes as those?" asks Phyllis Jones of Helen Thomas and Janice Palmer.

■ "Barnett's new store at 250 Pine is really modern, and they surely have a grand stock of summer shoes," puts in Helen. "You know that they've been in business for fourteen years, and if you want the smartest shoes in town, you'll find them at Barnett's Bootery," replies Janice.

A wonderful garden window

■ "Mmm, aren't these the most luscious prints," exclaims Barbara Weyant, admiring the brilliant, gay patterns at Pfeiffer's.

"They're tops," retorts Kitty Carroll, "I adore the gorgeous colors that are so flattering in Pfeiffer's materials. This window is a vision of a beautiful garden. Doesn't Maree Alice Hall look stunning in that peasant dress of splashy designed material and accented by its white linen bolero?"

"Well," pipes up Maree Alice, "every girl can have smart clothes if she shops at Pfeiffer's, 135 Broadway, across from Desmond's, and makes a selection from their cleverly styled patterns; and too, the lovely linens there are ideal for gifts." "I like to promenade through the store and admire the beautiful yardage in cotton, sheers, woolens, silks,—oh!, anything that would be used by the ultra-smart co-ed."

ROSE DRESS SHOP

How's the beach, girls?

Glorious, Bud, never better

■ Say, isn't that Doris Miller and Bernice Tolbert, our popular Senior Song Leader? And look at those smart beach outfits the girls are wearing!

"Yes," says Doris, "these overalls are just the thing for romping on the beach on a warm summer afternoon; they're so cool and comfortable. Say, Bernie, that play suit you're wearing is surely cute. Where did you get it, anyway?" "At the same shop you got your overalls, of course . . . the ROSE DRESS SHOP, 131 E. Fourth Street, where all the Wilson girls go for their sportswear." "You're right," chimes in Doris, "there isn't another place in town that has such a complete line of sportswear and their prices are so reasonable that you can easily afford two or three different costumes to add to your sports wardrobe."

Ahoy mates! South Seas for us

See the "Birdie"? To be honest, Bruce, I do not—but I'll tell you what I do see—"I think Katy Harris is perfectly stunning in that one piece Catalina Swim Suit, and Peggy Jean Layne is a standout in the very charming two-piece sun suit with the puffed shoulders and fitted-back coat. I had to look twice at Vic Cole to be sure it wasn't Robert Young of cinema fame in those "Sanforized" washable drape-style slacks. Vic, your white reverse buck oxfords and the shirred back Congo Cloth sport shirt complete your ensemble perfectly . . . Bruce Johnston is absolutely right with grey wool trunks and novelty grey mixed Terry Cloth beach shirt."

MOREY'S MUSIC STORE

What, can those young lads really play?

Just come down and hear them!

■ "Hello, Evelyn. Who are those young musicians with you?"

"Why you'll see every one of these fellows at Wilson in the near future," explains Evelyn Olmsted. "They're getting an early start in their musical careers as future owners of Morey's Music Store, 111 East Fourth Street. Morey's appreciate the opportunity to serve you with a selection of fine musical instruments, sheet music, and radios."

BARKER'S DRESS SHOP

Say, are those clay models
Or Wilson coeds in that window?

■ Let's look at BARKER'S windows, 309 E. Ocean; they always have such lovely things on display.

Oh, look, that model in the knit suit looks like, why it's Evelyn Chapman.

And there is Maree Alice Hall in that dainty Passerilli suit. Oh, and that's Ann Barker in the trim white cape. Isn't that just like Barker's to spring such a surprise?

The best-dressed girls in school rely on Barker's for their dresses, hats, coats, and suits. Their wide selection of sizes and styles at such reasonable prices make it fun to shop there.

GOLDEN RULE STATIONERS

■ "Of course!" exclaims Ed Norris, "The Golden Rule Stationers are the only place in Long Beach to get your art and office supplies."

Beth Karli agrees, "And their prices are so reasonable too. I can recommend their fountain pen department, with a complete line of standard makes."

"You're right!" replies Ed, "They certainly live up to their reputation for repairing fountain pens because they are factory equipped to repair all makes, which enables them to offer guaranteed, efficient service."

"And," interrupts Mary Jane Sheppard, "They have the best quality in show cards, art paper, paints, notebooks, pencils, anything you'd need."

Frank "Bud" Wilmer, Wilson Alumni '33, is proudly telling us about new merchandise they carry."

All Wilson Students are glad to indorse the Golden Rule Stationers, 235 E. Broadway, for dependable merchandise priced "Write".

"That back seat has more comfort and room than any car I know," Edith says.

"Yes," says Rex Walker, "and the battleship construction for which Studebaker is famed goes back to the years when Studebaker built the first steel body." "They lead the world in operating safety too," Bob declares, "they've got the smoothest feather-touch hydraulic brakes." Finest new Ford Plant in Southern California

■ "Say, there's a classy looking sport job."

"Hi, there are Jane Sheppard, Burton Cobb, and Bob Jacobs looking through that splendid new building of Freeman A. McKenzie's at 133 American Avenue." "Freeman A. McKenzie's new plant has been acclaimed the finest and most modern Ford sales and service dealership in Southern California," volunteers Burton.

"That's right," puts in Bob, "they are equipped for all kinds of reconditioning. They do all types of body work, upholstering, painting, and you can get your new sport top made there, too. And they also have 150 of the cleanest used cars I ever saw at 530 American."

HUMPHREYS

Swing it, Marguerite

What recordings of Benny Goodman?

■ "What are you doing down here at Humphreys Music Company, Marguerite? Been listening to records?"

"Yes, Humphreys is always the first in Long Beach to have the latest record releases of Benny Goodman, Tommy Dorsey, Casa Loma, and all the other big bands. You can surely beat it out to that keen music!" "So you're down here, too, Cleon Dorris." "Yes, I'm here for a music lesson. You know the best music teachers in town are at Humphreys."

It looks like all of Wilson comes to Humphreys. "Why are you here, Jerry Greenley?" "Oh, I always come to Humphreys. They have everything in music, fine pianos, radios, band and orchestra instruments, sheet music, and records."

Do Those Look Cool

M-m-m! Are the BIG BEARS good!

■ Look at those big ICYCLAIR trucks at 1101 Obispo Avenue bursting with frosty goodness! M m m m! I bet they are headed for Wilson.

"You're right," Evelyn Olmsted Scholarship president declares, "Wilson students eat thousands of these intriguing confections every week." "Yes, and all the high schools and junior highs in Long Beach eat thousands of these tasty bars every day," said Louie Buntrock, ace printer.

"And do they give service and treat customers like you were millionaires," added Bob Yancy, governor of affairs. "Are their BOX CARS a wow? and their BIG BEARS? every flavor and color—25 at least. And ice cream cups too," chuckled Virginia Robinson, G.A.A. president.

"And their business still advances at tremendous strides," says Charles Davis who goes to Pomona on a scholarship next year, "their sales grew more than 33 per cent last year in the face of all competition." "I like their beautiful ice cream cakes of different layers and flavors elaborately hand decorated in pastel colors," Mary LaFrance bubbled smacking her lips. "We're all for you ICYCLAIR"

The most beautiful thing on wheels

■ Say! Aren't those Wilson kids in that new Pontiac? Is it ever a classy model! Where did you get the car, Elfton?"

"Vic Atkins was just getting a demonstration from the friendly authorized Pontiac dealer, the LONG BEACH PON-TIAC COMPANY, 626 American Avenue, when Elouise Roper and Lorraine Winston happened along." "Yes," says Bill Chapin, "this demonstration has convinced us of the great value of Pontiac." "The thing that pleases me," adds Elouise, "is the courtesy and efficiency of the salesmen."

PRIMROSE FLOWER SHOP

■ Hello girls, where did you get those adorable corsages, they look as if they were made for you.

"They were made for us," says Margaret Park, beauty winner on the New Years Float, PRIMROSE FLOWER SHOP, 4806 East Second Street, does that very thing. They specialize in corsages that fit the dress as well as the girl. They find out whether you are tall or short, blond or brunette and even what your personality is like."

"And do the Wilson fellows flock to PRIMROSE to get that distinctively different corsage and know that it's really smart? Whether it's sport or formal, wrist corsage or head band, you just know it's ultra correct," declares Jean Cole, also a float winner.

"You should see their masses of fresh scented dewy gardenias, camellias, bouvardias, lilies of the valley, violets, roses and other flowers—all ready for the big formal tonight, and the orders from Wilson fellows," said Jane Worthington.

"They are always prepared when big affairs come along," chorused the three.

Watch Bob with his candid camera movies

■ Well, there's Bob Keating, handsome navy junior, with the new Model 20 Eastman movie camera that he bought at WINSTEAD BROS. INC., 244 Pine Avenue.

Winstead Bros. Inc. certainly started a riot when they suggested that students keep the whole history of their three year's of high school fun in movie films. "Everybody at Wilson is movie camera minded," declared Bill Houck. "Bob has taken loads of pictures of the Thespians in their comic moods," added Cleo Plymell, "and the camera fiends just go around shooting you at all kinds of inopportune times." "Yes, and after you're out of school you can just flash on the projector and unfold everything at good old Wilson," finished Bob.

BELMONT TOGG

Some class to those sport outfits, Jack

■ "Hello there, Dick Horne and Jack Gescheider. What are you fellows doing at the Belmont Toggery next door to the Belmont Theatre?"

"Oh, I just dropped in to see the smart new sport coats that some of the fellows asked Mr. Flude to order after we saw them in last month's Esquire," replied Jack. "I always buy my Arrow and Grayco shirts and ties and Allen-A socks here because the selection is the best in town and the prices are never a cent higher," added Dick. "Personal contact with a reliable independent merchant can't be beat," concluded Jack.

IT'S FUN TO SWIM AT THE PLUNGE

■ Just look at that pool of clear, sparkling water! It's the Long Beach Plunge, where Wilsonians go for a refreshing swim. Say, there are Jean Gifford, Evelyn Miner and Besse Lemmon sitting on the fountain. How's the water, girls?

"Never better! It's so clean all the time. How do they keep it like this," asks Besse.

Jean replies, "In the first place the water is drawn from way outside the Rainbow Pier. Before it reaches the pool, they run it through a sand and gravel filter and then sterilize it. Why, pasteurized milk is allowed, by California State law, to contain 100 TIMES more bacteria than Plunge water. That's how clean the Plunge is! ! And the Plunge itself is vacuum-cleaned daily to keep it spotless and sanitary."

"I like Ladies' Night, on Tuesdays and Thursdays," adds Evelyn "They furnish your suit, cap, towel, and give free swimming lessons, all for 25 cents."

HARBOR CHEVROLET

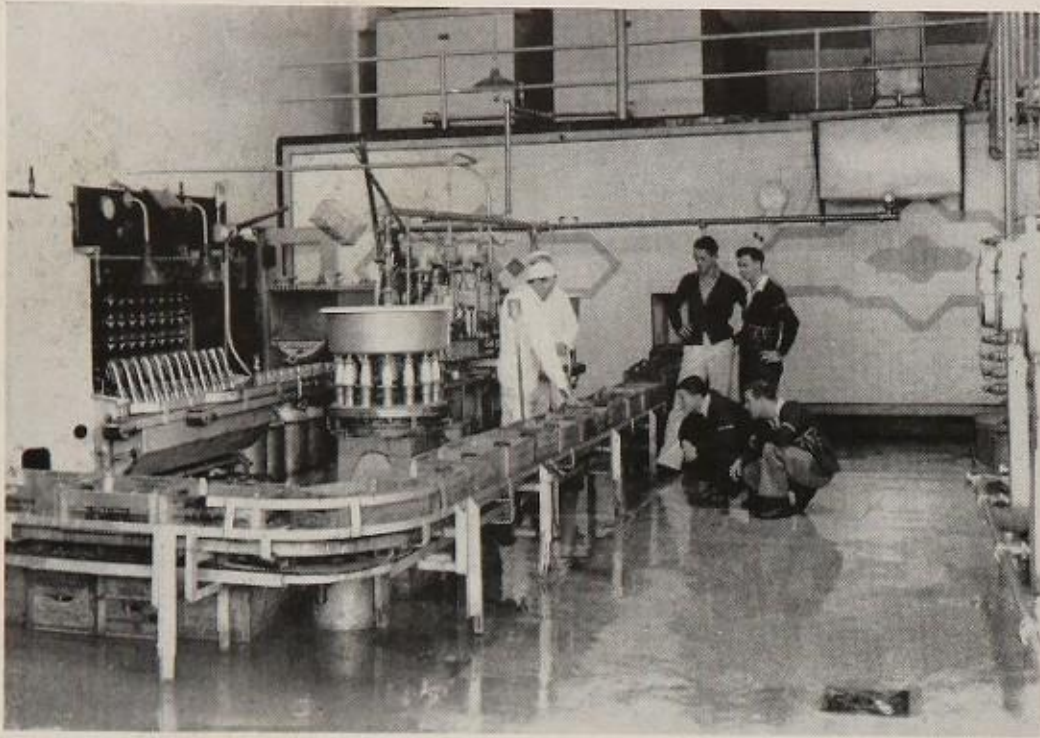

So good it gives you both 85 horsepower and peak economy.

■ Hello, there, Bud Adams. I see you're picking up Mary Weir and Grace Smith at the Coast Club in your striking new Chevrolet master deluxe sports coupe.

"Bud, that is certainly a beautiful car," Mary thrilled preliminary to stepping into its luxurious front seat. "And the safety, comfort, economy and performance of the Chevrolet's powerful 85 horse power valve-in-head engine in a unisteel, turret top Fisher body has me sold. It is the complete car, completely new."

"Surely," exclaims Grace Smith, "and the HARBOR CHEVROLET COMPANY AT ATLANTIC AND ANAHEIM is the place to buy your new Chevrolet or your Red Tag OKed used car and the place to have it serviced."

MOUNTAIN VIEW

And does that milk taste good!

■ Why look there, the Wilson relay team, Burdette Gandy, Ray Seares, Tom Walbridge, and Carl Randall, is looking over the sanitary, modern Mountain View pasteurizing and bottling plant.

"Now I see why the Mountain View milk that is delivered to our home and which I buy at their dairy stores is so pure and wholesome," declared Burdette. "It amazes me," said Ray, "how they can soap, brush, and sterilize the bottles; fill them with milk and immediately seal them untouched by human hands in the entire process." "No wonder this is judged one of the newest and finest dairy plants in the state," concluded Carl and Tom.

HIRSHFIELD'S

My! those ultra-smart ensembles!

Hirshfield's have adorable things!

■ Say, there are those "Three Smart Girls" from Wilson shopping at Hirshfield's. Let's listen in!

This smartly tailored white gabardine suit and sheer blouse are positively chic," exclaims Dorothy Loder, under her white felt hat with the smart brim and youthful bows at the back.

"Marcia Scott, you look dashing individual in your novel blue cape with the military square shoulders so much in vogue this season." "The gay, red floral print Marcia is wearing beneath the cape is genuinely smart," chimes in Catherine McGinnis. "Katy, you look exquisitely sweet in that navy polka dot with the pin-tucked vestee effect." All Wilson girls will delight in the cleverly styled fashions at Hirshfield's—Pine Avenue and Fifth.

■ “Off to college with the gift of gifts—A Corona Portable typewriter!” exclaims Clyde Doyle as he beams upon the new popular Silent Corona from the Hansen Typewriter Co., 206 East Broadway.

“Yes,” replies Dolores. “Of all my gifts to take to Stanford my typewriter is my most valuable possession.” “You can’t get along without a Corona in college,” says Betty Stull, office manager, “and even at Wilson a typewriter is indispensable.”

“Boy!”, exclaims Dicky Ralston, “this machine has speed, simplicity, and effortless floating-shift. It keeps its easy effortless action with no complex mechanisms added to wear and make it a rattle-trap in time.

“I recommend that you also go to the Hansen Typewriter Co. if you want to have your typewriter repaired. They give the personal adjustment that suits your individual touch, and that is mighty important in getting up speed,” advises George Copp, bound for U.S.C. Students can do better work when they have the use of a typewriter at home. Every business and profession use typewriters. Prepare for a successful career with a Corona Portable Typewriter.

Wrist watches for graduation

Many stunning selections

■ “Hi, Toni! I see you’ve discovered there’s more than one MERITHEW in Long Beach.”

“You bet, Bobbie,” replies Toni Mendell, “I’ve been up here in your father’s office selecting a watch for graduation. There are so many stunning ones that it is hard to choose.”

“Boy, that’s a honey you have on now,” declares Keith Damskey. “When I graduate this is where I’ll come for my watch or ring.”

DIME'N CAB

■ There are Eileen Egan, Geraldine Chapman, and Shirley Fern being helped into their limousine by the chauffeur.

“Oh, he isn’t our chauffeur,” prompted Eileen. “He is the driver of one of those good looking DIME’N CABS.” “And their drivers are certainly friendly and courteous; I always feel entirely safe with the DIME’N CAB drivers,” commented Shirley.

“I feel like a plutocrat,” added Geraldine, “when I ride in these convenient DIME’N CABS; just lots of Wilson kids go to their club meetings this reasonable way. Lots of times the price is only fifteen cents and never over twenty-five cents.”

HARRIS' FURS

Are those Hollywood models?

They will be when a scout sees them

■ "That gray kid caracul is certainly stunning on you, and it is priced at only $129.50. Its princess style and smart lines give you such an ultra-sophisticated effect," says Shirley Bardeen to Edna Willis.

Edna, admiring herself in the mirror, replies, "Well that imported Lapin stroller that you have on certainly does you justice. The new fingertip length has a swagger and youthful lines. It is only $59.50, too!"

"Did you know that Harris', 236 Pine Ave., is the largest and oldest furrier in the city, and that they glaze and comb furs during their lifetime of service without charge? Their cold storage vaults are the largest and most modern in the southwest. For only $3.00 for the entire season your furs are safely protected there from the many dangers that warm weather brings."

Harris Furs' stock is always complete and embraces a fur and fashion to fit everyone's taste and budget.

■ Are my eyes deceiving me, or is that Nina Ann Scott, Virginia Hanberry, and Betty Stabler? Yes, it's those three dashing Wilson girls. I say, where did you get those stunning beach clothes?

"Why, at MOORE'S ISLAND SHOP, 247 PINE AVE. of course," say all the girls in a chorus.

"That bathing suit of Betty's is the 'thing'. Its white background is splashed with bouquets of gayly colored flowers. And with that beach robe and sandals you have a beach outfit that every high school girl would like to have," says Nina Ann. "Well, that slack suit of yours certainly has all the dash and swagger a modern girl could look for in a sport ensemble," replies Betty. "This play suit and beach coat of mine are just what I have been looking for to romp in on the beach. Its gayly colored floral design is the newest thing in style," says Gina.

SANTA CATALINA ISLAND

"Hi, gang! You seem to be going places?"

"Foolish question, even if you can't read," snorts Ed Bockmon, "Catalina Island, of course." "Sure," chimes in Jean Garver. "We all like something different and Catalina's got them all. That's why."

Right Jean! At Santa Catalina are pleasures for every taste. Sandy beaches and sparkling water invite bathers—sun or sea. Beautiful trails lure hikers and horseback riders into the hills and canyons. At the Casino, Dick Jurgens and his orchestra provide music for dancing in the country's best known ball room. A sporty golf course and fine tennis courts are open to all visitors. Fishing is at its best in Catalina waters. And there are hotel accommodations to suit all desires, from the St. Catherine to a Villa bungalow.

Dynamometer tests cars

Hello Lemmon, Hello Thorp

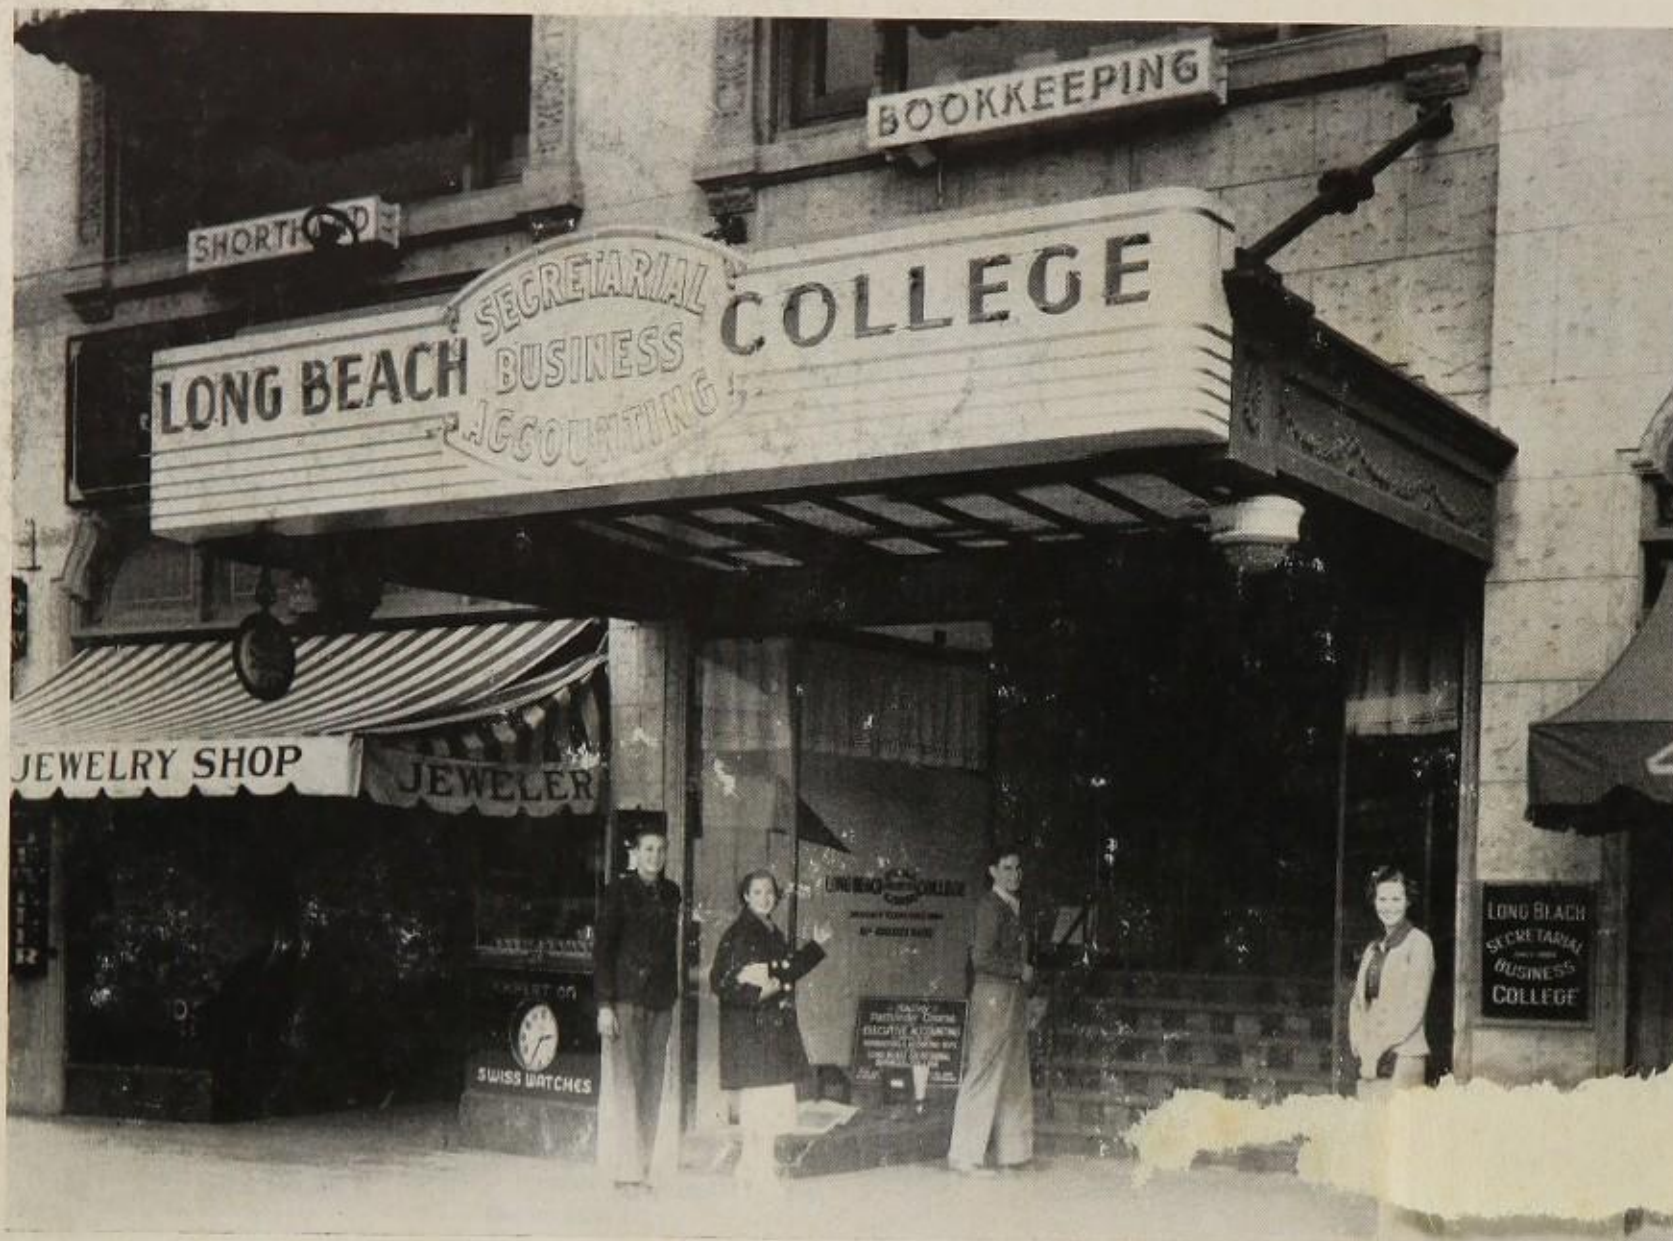

■ "Say Lee, this Dynamometer here at Smith and Thorp's, 141 East Anaheim, is certainly interesting," remarks Jean McCracken to Lee Thorp.

"Yes it is a remarkable machine, the only one in Long Beach; it will completely analyze the motor of any car. Without moving from the garage, the car is tested for speed, braking power, engine performance, mileage, everything, in fact, that is mechanical about the car," points out Lee Thorp to Jean and Helen Bolton. "If this is an example of Smith and Thorp efficiency," says Jim Lemmon, "all of my repair work will be done right here."

A modern institution where you learn real business

■ "Why, hello, Betty Lou. What are you doing?"

Betty Lou Stone replies, "Why, can't you see? This is the Long Beach Secretarial Business College."

"All the Wilson students come down here for their secretarial and accounting education," exclaims Jim D'Angelo.

Ray Wegter adds, "Of course we come down here. The Long Beach Secretarial Business College is the best place in town to obtain a thorough education in shorthand, typing, accounting, and comptometry."

"The new modern equipment and splendid teachers convinced me. Also, when you graduate you are placed in a position," says Pauline De Armond. "Yes, every graduate is placed!"

With much enthusiasm the four Wilson students proceed up the stairs. Beyond a doubt the Long Beach Secretarial Business College at Fourth and American Ave., must be excellent to attract so many Wilson students.

Cock o' the Walk
Makes the wheels go round

■ Cock o' the Walk and all ready to go!

Here we find Emmy Lou Edson, Billie Galleher, Charlie Pierce, and Merle Rogers on a visit to the Hancock Refinery. They've just seen "what makes the wheels go round," and now they know why Hancock Ethyl Gasoline and Hancock Five-Point Gasoline in their cars makes them, too, Cock o' the Walk.

What a smart little girl!

Just the thing for garden affairs!

■ "Hey, where do you kids think you are going in all those smart new clothes?"

"Why, we've just finished shopping at Walker's, Pine at Fourth, and I'm in love with this new hat that I bought in their MILLINERY Department," pipes up Jane Harris. "I adore your grey dress, Janie," says Betty Goularte, "and isn't yours a Hollywood Ju. or Frock, too? Say, you two, what do you think of this brown sheer with this adorable jacket of mine?" "You both look plenty O. K. to me, but how'm I doing in this Glen Plaid number from the MEN AND BOYS' DOWNSTAIRS STORE," questions Bill Van Leuven?
